CHAPTER 36: BBANGBANG FLAVOURED

IT'S A DISGRACE FOR A PART-TIMER TO PAY FOR KIMBAB!
THE EXPIRATION DATE IS UNTIL TOMORROW MORNING, SO IF I WAIT UNTIL THEN I CAN EAT FOR FREE!

HAVEN'T YOU TRIED BBANGBANG FLAVOUR YET? THE TASTE IS OUT OF THIS WORLD! IT'S A LIMITED TIME ONLY THING PLEASED FOR 10 YEARS!
THAT'LL BE 1000 WON.
The similar "Choco Soy Cereal" probably the older one, meaning the "OG". Wouldn't work for the reference.

CHAPTER 38: FIRST-IN FIRST-OUT

Most stories such as convenience stores place items in a first-in first-out basis

First-in first-out means putting items that are closer to its expiration date first,

And putting items that expire later to the back.

This way, the items closer to its expiration date will be sold first.

And it is an easier way to keep track of items and their expiration dates Most stores follow this basis.

NOWHERE, IT SEEMS MOST CUSTOMERS KNOW ABOUT THE FIRST-IN FIRST-OUT.
AND KEEP TAKING THE ONES AT THE BACK WITH THE LONGER EXPIRATION DATES...

THIS IS BECAUSE THE MILK AT THE FRONT AND THE BACK HAVE DIFFERENT EXPIRATION DATES.
HMMMMM...IF YOU PUT MILK WITH THE SAME EXPIRATION DATE IN THE FRONT...

IN OTHER WORDS... KEEP MILK WITH LONGER EXPIRATION DATES UNDER THE MILK WITH THE SHORTER EXPIRATION DATE SO THAT THE OLD GO FIRST.
WOW! THAT'S A REALLY GOOD METHOD!
